

CHAMBER MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

This chamber member spotlight features Melissa Tetrick with Sweet T's Bakery and Pie Shop.

Melissa and her daughter, Tori both bake in the shop and have loved this experience together.

Tell us a bit about your business.

"We are a bakery and pie shop. We sell those items and take orders."

What is your niche or target market?

"We sell baked goods for the community. We are a place where someone can go and get a cup of coffee and a yummy sweet snack."

What got you interested in running your own bakery?

"I have always wanted to run a bakery. I just decided now was a good time to take the big step and do it."

Since opening Sweet T's, what has been your biggest win? Biggest challenge?

"My biggest win is getting to bake and provide delicious items for the community. The biggest challenge is knowing what and how much to bake."

What makes you stand out from the competition?

"The variety we make and our willingness to go that extra step to make whatever the customer wants."

What are your personal goals for Sweet T's?

"I'd like to become a staple in the community. Somewhere that people will turn to for their baked goods."

Favorite Quote:

"The other day, someone came in and said, 'some days you just need a piece of chocolate pie.' I really liked that."

You can stop in and check out freshly baked items or order ahead — Tuesday through Saturday at 113 West A Ave in Kingman. (620) 532-1477
